

- Secondary school graduates
- 3 years' or more working experience and experience in construction field is a definite advantage
- Proficient in MS Office applications, including Chinese typing
- Job duties include managing document and associated dispatching, managing project filing system, routine clerical work and receptionist work
- Immediately available would be preferred